Anglican Parish of Moruya Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn

Sixth Sunday after Pentecost
26 June 2016

St John the Evangelist, Moruya
St Andrew's, Tuross Head, St Peter's College, Broulee

'We seek to be a loving, relevant, growing church, honouring God and reaching out to our community.'

Sentence

Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for Jesus' sake will find it.
Matthew 10.39

The Collect for today

O God,
the light of the minds that know you,
the life of the souls that love you,
the strength of the thoughts that seek you:
help us so to know you
that we may truly love you,
and so to love you
that we may fully serve you,
whose service is perfect freedom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Parish of Moruya and Evangelism Prayer

God help us to change.

To change ourselves and to change our world.

To know the need for it. To deal with the pain of it.

To feel the joy of it. To undertake the journey without understanding the destination.

The art of gentle revolution. Amen

Our parish acknowledges the traditional owners of this land and pays respect to elders past and present of the Walbunnga people of the Yuin Nation.

VISIT TO MORUYA OF THE WATOTO CHILDREN'S

CHOIR/DANCERS:

An exciting event will be held on Sunday 3 July at 6.00 p.m., at St Mary's Performing Arts Centre in Queen Street, Moruya.

The Watoto Children's choir/dancers will be visiting and performing “Oh What Love”. Watoto is based in Uganda and visiting choirs support the work of orphaned or struggling children in that country – children affected by poverty or violence. The visit is being hosted by both our Anglican Church and the Catholic Church in Moruya.

Linda will be opening the concert; Father Dominic will be closing the concert.

Come along and offer support. Be early to get a seat. A collection (“love offering”) will be made during the performance. You can also purchase Watoto merchandise, and refreshments (tea/coffee) will be served at a modest cost.

All monies raised will support Watoto.

Psalms 77.1-2, 11-20

I call to my God, I cry out toward him:

I call to my God, and surely he will answer.

In the day of my distress I seek the Lord, I stretch out my hands to him by night:

my soul is poured out without ceasing, it refuses all comfort.

I will declare the mighty acts of the Lord:

I will call to mind your wonders of old.

I will think on all that you have done:

and meditate upon your works.

Your way, O God, is holy:

who is so great a god as our God?

You are the God that works wonders:

you made known your power among the nations;

By your mighty arm you redeemed your people:

the children of Jacob and Joseph.

The waters saw you, O God, the waters saw you and were afraid:

the depths also were troubled.

The clouds poured out water, the heavens spoke:

and your arrows darted forth.

The voice of your thunder was heard in the whirlwind:

your lightning lit the world, the earth shuddered and quaked.

Your way was in the sea, your path in the great waters:

and your footsteps were not seen.

You led your people like sheep:

by the hand of Moses and Aaron.
